Ancient Egyptians

Life and Death in Ancient Egypt – workshop

This fun, absorbing, and interactive workshop introduces children to the fascinating and enigmatic world of the ancient Egyptians.

Discover what life and death was like in ancient Egypt. Join us for a virtual gallery talk where you will meet our boy Mummy Psamtek (the only Mummy in Devon) and learn about how Egyptians lived; what they wore, what foods they ate, who they worshipped and lots more. During the workshop you will also learn how to scribe Hieroglyphics and make your own scarab beetles.

You can extend this workshop by adding a 45-minute role-play embalming session.

90-minute workshop for up to 30 children – from £200

Toys through the Ages – workshop

Our interactive workshop on Toys through the Ages focuses on the different toys and games which children played with in the past including board games from Ancient Egypt and Tudor times.

Children investigate the similarities and differences between toys today and those in the past, introducing the concept of "old" and "new" and encouraging them to think about changes in living memory through handling and playing a variety of toys and games.

They also make their own Cup & Ball game, Peg Doll figure, and Thaumatrope to take home.
